WEEK 1

GAME OF THE WEEK - 5 p.m.

DYNASTY VS. NATURAL BORN THRILLERS

AMERICAN SPORTS CENTER, ANAHEIM -- The first game of the league will be huge, literally. "You better bring it if you're even thinkin' of comin' down the lane. Yessirrrr, Imma' say it again. You better think that over, TWICE." The middle will be clogged with two 6-footers from Team Dynasty and a bigger lineup from Natural Born Thrillers.

DYNASTY Power Forward Isaac Chua is a sweet shooting big man but make no mistake about his stroke, he will pound the ball inside. The rugged Dominic likes to shoot from the baseline and likes to dominate the boards. The wingspan of Josh Rotscheck and Luke Montilla will smother NBK with relentless defense whereas Eddie Sarnayoa and Sealand Wu will head the bench. The team will be led by veteran point guard, "Mr. Gary Payton of the league", Albert Bustos. The Team Captain is quick at PG for his age and his reliable bank shot from the wing is money. Speaking of money, "Rich Money" Richard Jimenez makes his living shooting 3's and will make NBT pay if they decide to not guard him.

NATURAL BORN THRILLERS is still a mystery

but with a lineup that has no one shorter than 5'7, you know defeating this squad is a tall order. Ramon Trillo is the elder statesman at 43 years old and he is experienced enough to guide the young Mike Wong at PG who is 19 years old. The Natural Disasters; brothers, Ed and Joe Pangindian will be double trouble and their backup is Christopher De Vera who has been in many championship teams. Alex Cua and Mario Cueson will occupy some real estate at PF. Bob Nguyen is a tall SG at 5'8 and Justin Reyes is the starting SG. He is more than just your average Team Captain. He has managed championship teams before and it won't be a surprise if this team starts their very own dynasty.

YOU BETTER BRING IT IF YOU'RE THINKIN' OF COMIN' DOWN THE LANE.

GAME 2 - 6 p.m. ✕

SO CAL ALLSTARS VS. THE FOUNDATION

With a last minute name change, THE FOUNDATION (Young Gunz) will begin their season by facing SO CAL ALLSTARS. No one is shorter than 5'8 in the Allstars so look for the Foundation to run and try to use their speed to their advantage. If the Allstars use their 10 man roster to the fullest, then it could be a long night for the FOUNDATION.

SEASON PREVIEW

Inaugural Season is a week away and we have 6 teams scrambling to finalize their rosters before Opening Day. A brand new season, a brand new league. The teams will face off for top seeding and the top 4 will play for the Championship.

Dynasty is a collaboration of talent from La Fitness in the city of Diamond Bar. The team boasts a mixture of fast guards and a big front court. Dominic and Issac Chua are big forwards that any football team would be proud of. The team feature two sharp shooting guards in the Captain, Albert Bustos and Richard Jimenez, who is a staple in the APAC and BASO basketball leagues. A faster squad, Young Gunz, will challenge their speed with a backcourt of Carlos Gucman and Brian Buenaventura. Led by Justin Reyes, Natural Born Thrillers from the city of Chino will feature two 6 footers at the Center. Omar Ramirez will guide a newly formed team, So Cal All Stars, which is looking to establish their identity, and will display a lineup of 5'8 - 6'0 players. Their lineup is relatively unknown but surely around this time next week, they will be well scouted along with the other teams.
